INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS EXPERIENCES AND RESEARCH

A Study of Tibetan Government-in-Exile

2018

The Central Tibetan Administration (CTA) is the government-in-exile of the Tibetan people. The government was set up in 1960 following the annexure of Tibet in China. The government overlooks political and cultural activities. The project primarily covers the following areas:

- Policies of the CTA
- Central and administrative Structure of the CTA
- Funding Structure of the CTA
- The impact of a refugee on a host country and a new Model for refugee intake
- An interview with the President of the Tibetan people

Drafted a Refugee Bill for a Member of Parliament

2018

The constitution of India lacks a structured refugee influx model and relies on ad-hoc committees for decision-making. Shashi Tharoor, Member of Parliament, India and the former Under Secretary-General of the UN, plans on introducing a bill bringing a model to India:

- Assisted Tharoor and his team in drafting the bill
- Organized a youth conference called I-Parliament and put the bill up for amendment among 500 delegates
- The bill would be put up for debate in the Parliament of India

HISTORIC INITIATIVES

Initiative for the Building of a Sports Heritage Museum in Jalandhar

2018-2019 (Ongoing)

Jalandhar, the town from where I belong is considered to be the leader of sports goods manufacturing in India. With the assistance of the Sports Good Manufacturing Association of India I plan on opening a museum. The assembly of the museum is underway and would be inaugurated in January 2020. The project aims to focus on the following spheres:

- The evolution of the industry and the contribution of individual through the ages.
- Impact of India's partition in 1947 and the transfer of the sports industry from Sialkot now in Pakistan to Jalandhar in Punjab

- Collection of Historic sports products, vintage tools and written records pertaining to the industry
- Evolution of manufacturing techniques over the years
- Feature crucial moments and successes of the industry
- Bringing Jalandhar into the spotlight and spreading awareness about its role in India's industrial history
